Balik Probinsya Bagong Pag-Asa

Balik Probinsya Bagong Pag-Asa

The Balik Probinsya Bagong Pag-asa or BP2 program aims to boost countryside development and provide a better future for Filipinos by encouraging Metro Manila's urban poor to return to their home province.

To support their transition to the province, BP2 provides support and incentives on transportation, family, livelihood, housing, subsistence, and education, among others.

The program focuses on four key areas:

Empowerment of Local Industries

Food Security and Agricultural Productivity

Development of Infrastructure

Social Welfare, Health and Employment

Assistance to Families

The types of services and total amount of assistance to be provided per family will vary based on the assessment of DSWD's social workers in coordination and collaboration with the local social welfare officers and other staff from DSWD's field offices.

- Transportation/Relocation Assistance of Php 3,000.00 to Php 35,000.00 for family beneficiaries to move their properties and belongings from their current residence to where they will relocate.
- Transitory Family Support Package of Php 10,000.00 to Php 70,000.00 to cover food and non-food items needed by the family during their transition. Non-food items include clothes, school supplies, hygiene kits, and other essentials.
- Livelihood Settlement Grants of up to Php 50,000.00 as start-up capital for the establishment or continuity of livelihood and economic activities for eligible families or families that cannot be covered by support from other government agencies.
- Transitory Shelter Assistance in the form of rental subsidy amounting to Php 120,000.00 to Php 250,000.00 per year, for up to two years, while awaiting NHA housing to be constructed or awarded.
- Psychosocial Support through dialogues and specialized sessions for the family in preparation for the reintegration to their hometowns.
